Thousands to File Past Bier of Sen. Joseph McCarthy in the Capital

Marine Guard Stands at Each End of Casket; Widow Pays Private Visit

WASHINGTON (UP)—The body of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, the man who became a hero and an epithet, lay in state today at a Pennsylvania Avenue funeral home holding a rosary.

Thousands of friends, associates and the simply curious were expected to file past the bier of the 47-year-old Republican before funeral services are held Monday in the Senate. The funeral home was scheduled to be open to the public 12 hours today and Sunday.

Senators, cab drivers and mink-coated socialites were among the first persons who paid their final respects to McCarthy Friday night when his body was first placed on public view.

Observe Be Kind to Animals Week May 5 to 11

Be Kind to Animals Week is being observed in the United States and Canada May 5-11 by 600 member societies of the American Humane association, including the society in Harrisburg.

Locally, the public is being invited to visit the shelter just north of the city limits, where many desirable pets await adoption.

"Although the public is invited to visit the shelter at all times, we especially invite them to inspect our facilities during the afternoons of this special week, which starts tomorrow," an announcement said. "We are constantly trying to improve the premises to take care of the ever-increasing demands on the society."

One hundred posters advertising the special week have been displayed throughout the county.

Course Free for Week at Golf Club Open House

With the course in the best shape in years, officers of the Egyptian Golf Association today extended an invitation to everyone to play golf free of charge for one week during the club's Golf Open House, starting tomorrow and extending through Sunday, May 12.

New members are being actively solicited, and the Open House was proposed as a means of acquainting prospective members with the course and facilities at the country club.

President James Humphrey has had all his commitments working at full speed, although they have been somewhat handicapped by the heavy rains, which at the same time were very beneficial to the condition of the course itself. Charlie Skaggs and Robert V. Wilson are co-chairmen of the activity committee, and they have planned many events for the coming season, including an early tournament to stimulate interest. Assisting in tournament arrangements are Jack Davenport and Gene Humphrey.

Membership chairmen are Troy Hart and John C. Wilson, who have been doing an excellent job of bringing in new members, and they are hoping the week of free golf will be just the inducement needed to provide additional members needed to fill the club's quota.

Sixth Fleet Returns to West Mediterranean

Departure is Showy Tribute to Hussein's Victory

ABOARD U. S. S. FORRESTAL — The U. S. 6th Fleet steamed back toward the western Mediterranean today. The departure from the Middle East was a showy tribute to King Hussein's victory over leftwing elements in Jordan.

Vice Adm. Charles R. Brown said the spectacular dash of his atom-capable fleet to the eastern Mediterranean last week had a "stabilizing" influence on the Jordanian crisis.

The fleet passed off the northwest tip of Crete at dawn today and was expected to reach the Straits of Messina about sundown. The course it followed was almost the same it ran in reverse a week ago.

But this time it was easing along at an 18-knot speed instead of the 27-knot speed with which it barreled into the Middle East.

The crews of this super-carrier and the 20-odd ships accompanying it were delighted with the orders received Friday to steam westward again.

For most of them it will mean welcome liberty ashore after five days of grueling practice exercises that had kept some of them at their posts for as much as 16 hours a day.

The five-day stay in the Middle East this time was compared to the 27-day visit during the Suez crisis.

The fleet will participate in the "Green Pilot" exercises of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization scheduled for next week.

At any rate it will be little more than a day away from the Middle East should another crisis erupt.

Moore Brothers Paint Brother's House As Birthday Gift

Thursday was the 66th birthday of C. C. Moore of Saline Four community. His brothers, J. B. Moore, A. A. Moore and Jesse J. Moore, aided by the tenant, Otto Golliher, painted the entire house in one day as a birthday gift for brother C. C. C. Moore reports that he acted as general assistant to the job, and took the workers to Harrisburg for a noon dinner. He says that he believes that this is a real live example of "Brotherhood in action."

Ready to Scrap In Wisconsin for McCarthy's Post

MADISON, Wis. (UP)—Wisconsin political leaders today prepared to scrap over the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's vacant seat in the U. S. Senate.

The controversial senator's unexpected death Thursday brought leaders of both parties to a point they hadn't expected to arrive at until 1958. Candidates were caught with their plans either unmade or half-formed.

Republican Gov. Vernon Thomson was expected to order a special election, but not until sometime after McCarthy's burial Tuesday and after a caucus with Wisconsin GOP chairman Philip Kuehn on Thursday.

An election date early next fall has been most frequently mentioned. Under state law, the governor can not order it more than 70 days in advance.

A rumor scurried about the Legislature Friday that a special election would not be held, but that a measure would be introduced to empower Thomson to appoint a successor to McCarthy. Other states have statutes similar to this.

There is no shortage of experienced, but young candidates in either party.

The top Republican names are former Gov. Walter Kohler, former Rep. Glenn Davis and Lt. Gov. Warren Knowles.

The Democrats, who have not elected a senator in Wisconsin since 1932, also have three top candidates. They are oft-beaten gubernatorial candidate William Proxmire, the frequent spokesman for the party, State Sen. Gaylord Nelson and Rep. Harry Reust.

Proxmire has been beaten twice by Kohler in races for the governorship and is considered by some to have had his chance at high office.

Nelson has not held a statewide office, but has substantial party and labor backing.

State Democratic leaders will meet in Madison this weekend, once at a dinner tonight that was scheduled before McCarthy's death and again at a specially called meeting Sunday.

Annual Junior-Senior Prom at Eldorado Tonight

The annual Junior-Senior Prom of the Eldorado Township high school will be held this evening, starting at 6:30 in the ETHS cafeteria with a banquet.

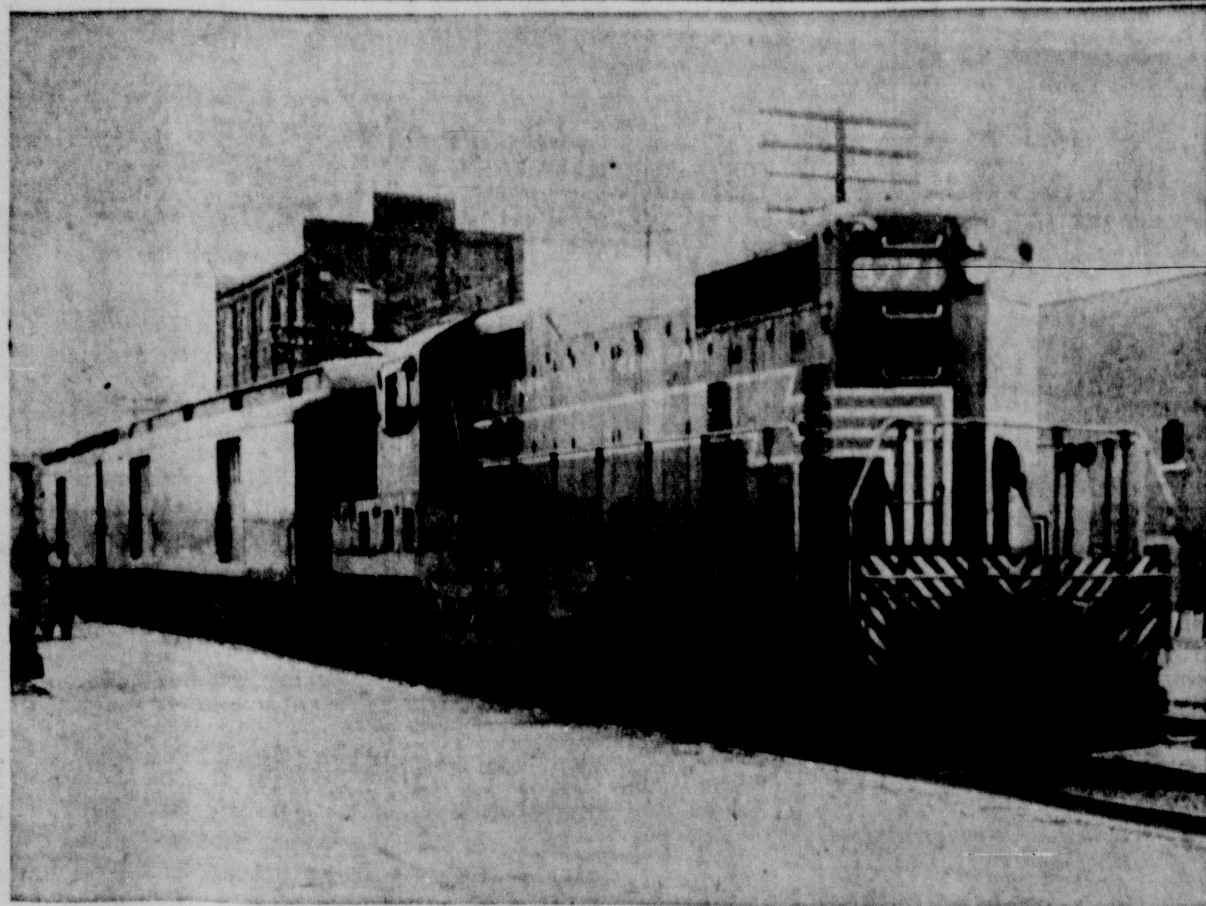

A 9 o'clock there will be a dance, with music by the Karl Louis orchestra of Carbondale. A highlight of the dance will be the selection of "The Belle of the Ball," from eight senior candidates.

Candidates are Judy Butler, Faye Cheek, Sue Hill, Sue Holbrook, Shirley Sullivan, Rita Walker, Mary Jo Davis and Carol Muckley. The escort of the girl selected will be "King of the Ball."

Following the prom there will be a midnight movie and after the late show there will be breakfast at the high school cafeteria. The movie and breakfast are sponsored by the Eldorado Rotary club.

Last passenger run out of Harrisburg for Chicago was Train 462, which departed last night. Coinciding with the final runs of the NYC was the retirement of Coy A. Weaver, veteran cashier who had an office in the freight depot. Mr. Weaver retired May 1 and he and his wife already have departed for California for a visit. A new Highway Post Office has been set up to take over the mail service formerly handled by the NYC and this will start Monday when the big truck is scheduled to arrive here at 7:45 a. m. An inaugural run will be made this afternoon with dedication ceremonies scheduled for the front of the Harrisburg post office at 2:50 p. m. (Register Staff Photo)

Triplet Baby Boys Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Raben

Triplets were born last night in the Harrisburg hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Raben of 206 West College street, Harrisburg.

The babies, all boys, weighed respectively, 5 pounds and 1 ounce, born at 6:45 p. m., 3 pounds and 15 ounces, born at 7:15 p. m., and 4 pounds and 4 ounces, born at 7:30 p. m.

The parents have not yet named the little boys and two of them will be sent to the premature infant center in Springfield.

There are two other children in the Raben home, Jim, aged 6, and Rex, aged 8 years. These are Mrs. Raben's sons by a former marriage. She was the former Miss Louella Hamilton and more recently the widow of Rex Burnett.

Mr. Raben said this morning that the babies have not been named since they had planned on a girl, or perhaps twin girls, so suggestions for names for three little boys, are in order.

In the Mid-East

The Arab nation of Syria held key elections today that will indicate whether it is on the road to Communism.

The elections were considered by Western diplomats to be far more important than their surface appearance.

Only 200,000 of Syria's three and a half million people were eligible to vote. The elections will decide only four of parliament's 143 seats.

But the issues and candidates were so clearly divided between the left and the right that the results of the voting will be regarded as defining Syria's future course.

It was the first test of the Syrian government's pro-leftist leaning since King Hussein in neighboring Jordan ousted the left wing

Judge Reynolds Rules Proceedings Can Be Filed Against Williams

Circuit Judge C. Ross Reynolds this morning ruled that quo warranto proceedings can be filed against Harrisburg City Commissioner Don Williams.

Judge Reynolds passed judgment on a petition filed by Mayor Claud Gibbons and Commissioner Morris Darnell in which they asked permission of the court to file such proceedings on the contention that Williams lives outside the corporate limits of Harrisburg.

The petition was argued about four weeks ago, with Atty. Lloyd H. Melton representing Gibbons and Darnell and Atty. Scerrial Thompson representing Williams.

Following the arguments Judge Reynolds asked for written briefs in the matter and today he gave his ruling.

Judge Reynolds, of Vienna, stated that after studying the briefs he was more convinced that any citizen could file quo warranto proceedings in such a case on his own relation.

"When Mr. Williams was elected, there apparently was no question as to his eligibility to hold office," Judge Reynolds stated. "But it is alleged he now has moved out of the corporate limits and if the allegation is true, I believe any taxpayer in the city can question his authority."

"In this cause, the petition will be granted and the plaintiffs will be permitted to file quo warranto proceedings on their own relation."

John R. Kuntz, 31, former Resident, Dies at St. Louis

John R. "Bob" Kuntz, 31, of St. Louis, Mo., formerly of Harrisburg, died suddenly in a St. Louis hospital, Friday at 11:10 p. m.

Mr. Kuntz was formerly employed by the Harrisburg dairy and is remembered by many friends here.

He is survived by Frieda Kuntz, the former Miss Frieda Odum, and their two children, Linda Sue Kuntz, 8 years old, and Ronnie Lee Kuntz, 3 years old.

Frieda Kuntz resides at 3851 Ohio street, St. Louis, Mo., and has relatives in Harrisburg.

Startled farmers in the tiny community of Shotwell heard the plane swoosh overhead, then jumped into trucks and cars to follow the plane's dust cloud as it bounced for more than a mile along the narrow road. The jet's wingtips stretched from one shoulder of the road to the other.

As he munched sardines and crackers at the Shotwell store after the landing, Geangerard said the plane's directional instruments "went haywire" and they ran out of fuel.

Hussein's victory over the pro-Communist camp in his country was emphasized by the U. S. 6th Fleet's action in steaming out of the Middle East Friday just five days after it had arrived.

The fleet, for a while, probably will stay at the most only a days of his government last month. A dispatch from United Press correspondent Joe Morris in Amman said the three kings of the Arab world may meet next week and spawn a brand new Middle East alliance.

Diplomatic sources in Amman said young King Hussein probably would meet with his cousin, King Feisel of Iraq, and King Saud of Saudi Arabia. The meeting might take place when Saud goes to Baghdad May 11 on a state visit or at some less conspicuous place.

Two Israeli frigates will take part. Israeli reports said the display, first such at the Gulf of Aqaba port since 1948, would demonstrate Israel's determination to keep on using the gulf no matter what Egypt does to prevent it.

U. S. special envoy James P. Richards flew from Israel to Tunisia for the beginning of the end of his trip to explain the Eisenhower Doctrine. He will visit Morocco and Libya and then report to President Eisenhower in Washington without visiting Syria, Jordan or Egypt.

Communique is Issued at Close of Talks

Dulles Confers With Adenauer Before Flying to Paris

BONN, Germany (UP)—The 15 nations of the North Atlantic Alliance issued a joint warning Friday night that they will meet any Soviet aggression with massive atomic retaliation.

Foreign ministers of the NATO nations announced their united determination in a communique at the end of two days of closed meetings.

They left for home today, however, without making a final decision on equipping West Germany and other continental NATO members with tactical A-weapons.

They also made it clear they are ready and anxious to reach agreement on disarmament any time Russia will accept adequate disarmament controls.

U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles remained in Bonn today to confer with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer at lunch before flying on to Paris where he will preside over a conference of American ambassadors in Western Europe.

Joint Reply to Threats

The NATO council's toughly worded communique warned that the West will respond to any Soviet attack "with all available means." The warning served as a joint reply to Soviet atomic threats against most of the NATO members.

Without reaching any startling new decisions the council made it plain that its cold war policy remains to:

—Maintain a powerful deterrent in the form of both conventional and nuclear weapons which it would use unhesitatingly to halt a Communist attack.

—Reject flatly all Soviet attempts to intimidate NATO members into refraining from equipping themselves with tactical A-weapons.

—Negotiate a general disarmament agreement with Moscow, provided the Soviets accept the controls the West regards as indispensable.

The communique said NATO military authorities now are studying the question of supplying A-weapons to the continental NATO states, particularly the balance to be maintained between nuclear and conventional weapons.

Dulles, Adenauer Talks

Bonn foreign office sources said Adenauer and Dulles planned to discuss these points:

—Recent Soviet threats on A-disarmament and German reunification.

—German property in the United States confiscated during World War II. This still is a sore point in relations between the two countries.

—Negotiations on a new troop stationing treaty. The negotiations are deadlocked after two years. The main difficulty is in financial provisions.

—Adenauer's scheduled visit to the United States later this month to confer with both Dulles and President Eisenhower.

Spread Modern Republicanism, Ike Tells Western GOP

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—President Eisenhower told western Republican leaders Friday they must "spread the gospel" of "modern Republicanism" if the party is to regain control of Congress next year.

Speaking by telephone from Washington, the President told a regional conference of Republicans there was "no point in glossing over losses" suffered in the West last year. He said the time has come "to regroup our forces and make a vigorous start to correct the situation next year."

Eisenhower told the opening session of a three-day strategy meeting that "the party member who is giving his full strength to the support of the 1956 Republican platform is in my opinion practicing the kind of Republicanism that, in this day, represents the best interest of our party and of the people of our country."

"By spreading the gospel of this kind of Republicanism," the President said, "we shall bring back into the fold all those who left us in 1956, and gain thousands of recruits to make our strength decisive in the service of our country."

Flag at Ike's

Farm at Half Mast

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—The flag on the front lawn of President Eisenhower's farm flew at half mast presumably because of the death of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy. The flag was flying at half mast when the President arrived here Friday for the weekend of relaxation and possibly some golf.

Secret servicemen declined to say why the flag was lowered. But it was assumed the President decided to follow the custom that flags over public buildings are lowered whenever a member of Congress dies.

Eisenhower, who differed sharply with McCarthy, has designated White House Administrative Assistant I. Jack Martin to represent him Monday at the McCarthy funeral. Martin was the late Sen. Robert A. Taft's administrative assistant.

TUESDAY CLUB TO SPONSOR CANCER DRIVE

The Equality Tuesday Club will sponsor the cancer drive this year. This is the first time the drive has been established in Equality.

Please remember these women who are soliciting for the cause are donating their time and efforts that you may be informed through the distribution of literature.

Doctors are interested in getting the literature into your home that you may become better informed of this dreadful disease. Statistics say, last year 250,000 Americans died of cancer. This year almost 255,000 will die of cancer. Approximately 700 Americans die of cancer every day. Cancer kills one man, one woman, or child every two minutes in the United States, but of all Americans who die today, the death of one-fourth could be avoided if proper treatment were begun in time. So please have a check up.

The quota for Equality is $90.00, so if every home would give only 25c with the gifts from organizations we could go above our quota. This money is used for research. So will you please give, even though the gift be small, with others it soon adds up.

Will the members of the Tuesday Club, and other women who are willing to give their time to distributing this literature and soliciting please meet at my home Friday afternoon, May 3, at 1:00 p. m. Thank you.

Mrs. Bob Barnett, Chairman.

METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

On Thursday, April 25, the Rev. Floyd Hale, pastor of the Cave-in-Rock and Elizabethtown charge, was with us to present the message on stewardship in the local church. He remained with us for the training of workers in the every member canvass. His family was with him and refreshments were served at the parsonage for Rev. Hale and his family.

Sunday evening, April 28, Rev. Pierce presented 57 Certificates of Loyalty to members and friends of the church. These were given in recognition of attendance in the evening services, during the period from first of January to Easter. Each person attending as many as ten services during this period, received a Certificate of Loyalty. The period from January 1 to Easter was a period in which we sought to increase church attendance, joining many churches of all denominations in the Attendance Crusade. New members received into the Methodist church last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Adrian McMurtry, Adriana McMurtry, Virginia Aud, Rita Heley, Stuart, Rosetta Crayne and Janie Porter.

LYMAN BONNELL, FORMER RESIDENT, WINS AWARD

(The following item appeared in a recent edition of the Dixon State School publication. Mr. Bonnell is a former Equality resident where he served as a rural mail carrier for several years.)

Lyman Bonnell, Dixon State School employee, has always given the date of April 28, his birthday, a special place on the calendar and now the day will have even more significance.

Bonnell, who will be 62 years of age this month, has been announced as one of the national award winners in the Psychiatric Aide Achievements Awards, an annual program of the National Association of Mental Health.

Awards will be presented at the Mental Health Banquet, April 30, in Springfield and on April 28, he will be honored at Dixon State School.

That favorite day, the 28th of this month, creeps into the picture again with news that on this day in 1955, he began work in the cottage in which he is now located.

An attendant in the nursing division, Bonnell is entered from Dixon State School for the State of Illinois award contest. The ward where he works houses 60 mentally retarded boys between the ages of 12 and 16, a group considered trainable rather than educable.

Bonnell, during the time he has worked with these boys has shown imagination and ingenuity in many ways. By his kindness he has made the cottage a "home" with in the institution.

Having taken the required attendant training course, Dixon's award winner has indicated he will be enrolling in the Psychiatric Aide Program. He is ever ready to give full support and cooperation to any idea for the residents. His initiative has manifested itself in the way he has brought about cottage improvement.

Bonnell resides on the Dixon State School grounds.

Father, Annoyed At Crying, Strangles, Decapitates Infant

CHICAGO (AP)—The father of a 2½-month-old boy brutally murdered the child early today because the baby's crying annoyed him.

Cuthbert Coy, 38, of suburban Berkeley, told police he "couldn't stand" the crying of his son, David. He said he strangled the baby "for a while" and then, uncertain whether David was dead, decapitated him with a kitchen knife.

His wife, Alice, ran screaming from the house when he snatched up their child.

Police said Coy, a laborer, had been a patient in a mental institution.

THE CHANNEL SWIM

ABC Show to

Close; Blondie

Goes Out at NBC

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (AP)—The channel swim . . .

"Kukla, Fran and Ollie," one of TV's veterans, plays its last stanza on the ABC-TV network June 7. ABC-TV will offer a sports show next fall in place of the Kukla-politans. "Blondie" goes out the NBC-TV revolving door next fall . . . Betty Furness will trade her ice cubes for greasepaint on "Studio One" May 13 when she stars in "Babe in the Woods." Jody McCrea will also grace the case—he's the son of Joel McCrea and Frances Dee.

Everybody but the dog in the "Lassie" cast is getting the pink slip for next season . . . Harry Belafonte, who has caught fire this year, will do a 90-minute spec on CBS-TV or ABC-TV next semester.

Guy Mitchell will be spotted on "Person to Person" May 10, but he doesn't know it yet. He's en route to the United States from Australia—Guy's wife, Elsie, gave the go-ahead to Ed Murrow.

"Tic Tac Dough" is branching out to British TV where it'll be re-titled "Naughts and Crosses" . . . "You the Jury," emceed by Jim McKay, looks like a hot contender for a CBS-TV daytime slot.

"Valiant Lady" is shaky at CBS-TV . . . Ditto "Wire Service" at ABC-TV and "Circus Boy" at NBC-TV. NBC Opera will present Wagner's "Die Meistersinger" and Poulenc's "Dialogues of the Carmelites" next season.

Rob Strom, the 10-year-old whiz of the "The $64,000 Question," will do a comedy bit on the Ed Sullivan show this Sunday.

Feed Supplies May Continue at Record High

The nation's pigs and other farm animals can stop worrying about where their next meal is coming from. Feed supplies will probably continue at near record levels for at least another year. The large supplies will continue to bear down on prices. And price support levels announced for 1957 crops are slightly lower than those on 1956 crops.

It is true that the acreage of corn will probably be reduced substantially, but many farmers aim to produce more of other feeds. This is evident from the USDA survey and report of prospective plantings released in March.

CORN. The March report says that "corn plantings may total 74.4 million acres, the smallest in 70 years, or 5 percent less than in 1956 and 11 percent below the 1946-56 average."

Farmers in Nebraska are cutting corn acreage most, about 21 percent. Most of the cuts are probably on their nonirrigated dry land, which did not produce much last year. Iowa farmers are cutting about 5 percent and Illinois 3 percent. Ohio is cutting 4 percent and Missouri 6 percent.

Plan and Plant for Wild Game Cover

More cover will encourage wild game to multiply on farms. Harold Scholten, extension forester at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, says any odd areas such as field corners, low spots, gullies or rock piles can be improved for wildlife.

Plant clumps of trees, shrubs or vines in areas that you can't crop. Scholten suggests. Field shelter belts, living fences of multiflora rose and farmstead windbreaks all furnish good wildlife cover.

Fence rows and the borders of farm woodlands can make good wildlife areas. Planting a field border of grasses or legumes next to a woodland area provides a turnaround for machinery, prevents shrubs and trees from spreading onto the field and provides a place for wildlife to flourish.

Cover consists of trees, shrubs, grass, vines or tall weeds where wild game can find shelter from its natural enemies, hunters and the weather. Cover also makes a place for wild animals and birds to hide their nests and young.

A University of Illinois farm safety specialist says that farm tractor accidents now take more than 1,000 lives every year.

By Albert Meyer

The business of marketing the nation's agricultural products is complicated and important to the farmer—as well as to other groups. Most farmers are inclined to raise questions about the fact that they sell the farm products to feed a nation for about $19,000,000,000 and the consumers pay $51,000,000,000 for them. The $32,000,000,000 difference represents charges for marketing services, and this strikes the producers as an overpriced share of the consumers' dollar. After all, the farmers feel they have a right to a fair return for the $165,000,000,000 they have invested in the farm production plant, for their risks, and for their work.

However, without denying that farmers do not always get their fair share of the consumers' food dollar, there ought to be knowledge about a system before it may be praised or condemned fairly. With understanding may come improvements that will make it more efficient. With closer observation of marketing trends and commodity supplies farmers may do a better job of farm management by knowing what to produce, how much to produce, and how, when, and where to sell to best advantage. Walter J. Willis, Southern Illinois University agricultural marketing specialist, says that marketing is a dynamic process that is subject to continual change.

He says that marketing farm products includes more than just getting them from the farm to the first buyer; it includes all the processes involved in moving a product from the farm to the consumer. Many of the costs are incurred after the first buyer has received the product and paid the farmer who prefers to get his money on delivery.

Most farm products are perishable and need special handling. Generally they need to undergo inspection and grading to meet the specifications of governmental regulations or a specific market. Most of them need added processing—perhaps more so now than ever before due to changes in consumer tastes, living standards, and habits. Convenience, quality, and appearance have been receiving increasing emphasis from the consumer in recent years. Modern methods of supermarket merchandising are catering to these ideas.

Each added step in this marketing procedure adds to the cost of the finished product to cover rising charges for labor, the investment costs, the losses from spoilage, and to provide a profit for persons involved. Since the farmer prefers to be paid on delivery, others must finance the other steps in getting the products to the consumers in the form they desire. Of course, the consumers pay the total bill in the final charge for the commodities.

To indicate changes in consumer buying habits and the added services involved in marketing, just check a few examples.

Few families today buy wheat flour in 24, 48, or 98 pound bags. Bread and pastries come ready to serve in convenient packages and in great variety. Busy with a job to help pay for things desired in the home or with social or civic activities, the harried housewife today prefers to: buy a package of cake mix to which she needs only add water before baking; to dash to the market for a package of partly cooked rolls that need only a few minutes in the oven for browning before serving; to buy in a can ready prepared biscuits that can be baked in a few minutes and served piping hot for a quick breakfast; or to buy ready-prepared frozen meals that may be heated and served between television programs so that the family may relax from the rush of a busy day and have dinner around the television set without missing favorite programs.

The produce racks in the supermarket indicate many recent changes in marketing methods for fresh fruits and vegetables. Potatoes, citrus fruits, apples, and other commodities formerly sold in bulk now come in consumer sized bags. No more do radishes, carrots, and turnips come in bundles with tops attached, but cleaned and de-topped in handy plastic bags. Shredded assorted fresh salad vegetables may be had in convenient plastic bags.

Pricing and efficiency in performing the various functions involved in the marketing system are important. Farmer understanding of these marketing problems and consumer demands, both on a short term and a long term basis, is essential to improvements. Not only may the farmer be able to take over some of the marketing steps through producing higher quality food crops of the kind in vogue, but he may in some instances handle the grading, packaging and transportation and thus obtain a greater share of the consumers' food dollar.

Livestock Marketing Check-Off Law

House Bill No. 5244 and Senate Bill No. 646, if passed by Congress, will require authorized agencies on posted markets to make a check-off against the sales of livestock. The check-off will be limited to not more than 10 cents per head of cattle and 5 cents per head on hogs and sheep.

Since there is an organized campaign on the part of the proponents of this bill, you should write your representatives in Congress and tell them your opinions. It will not do any good to complain after a law is passed. Now is the time to let Congress know what you think.

ATTEND CHURCH SUNDAY

AND WHAT WILL THEY FIND INSIDE?

Here's a handsome, happy family marching through the open doors of a church. But what will they find inside? A lovely sanctuary? Perhaps. A congenial group of people? Perhaps. An inspiring sermon and beautiful music? Perhaps. All these they may possibly find inside. But here is what they will certainly find.

- A group of people banded together by a common faith for a common purpose...
 - Assurance that there is a God who cares and loves...
 - Direction for the perplexities that each day brings...
 - A demand to live as God would have them live...
 - A cross as the divine source of faith, hope and love...
- And if you go to church next Sunday, that's what YOU'LL certainly find too!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest force on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

"God's Plan and Man's Response"

May 5, 1957

GOLDEN TEXT: "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon." (Isaiah 55:7)

INTRODUCTION:—God is a God of order. He has a plan for everything which He created. The whole universe operates according to His plan.

God created man in His own moral and spiritual image. The personality of man is much like that of his creator. God permitted his most precious creation, man, to have a will of his own. In other words, God gives man the privilege of making his own decisions.

How it must have hurt the heart of God when our first parents, His most precious creation, chose to disobey Him. Adam and Eve deliberately chose to disobey God. Thus sin entered into the world.

How very gracious God is! Even for sinful man God provided a way for him to escape eternal punishment for his sins. "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Romans 6:23)

I God Planned Blessings (1:27-28)
After creating man, God gave him a companion. He placed them in the Garden of Eden where they were surrounded by beauty which God alone could create. As if that were not enough, God blessed them and told them to be fruitful and to multiply and to replenish the earth. He gave them dominion over every living creature that moved upon the earth.

Yes, God planned for His children to really enjoy life at its best upon this earth, but

II Man Chose to Sin (6:5)

Read all of chapter three of Genesis and see how Satan tempted Eve and then Adam. God had given clear instructions to both Adam and Eve concerning one true in the midst of the garden. They were not to eat of that one tree. Satan tempted Eve. She yielded to temptation, and then tempted Adam. Adam disobeyed God. Sin had taken its toll, and man kind has suffered ever since.

Sin began to spread. By the time God instructed Noah to build the ark, men had become so sinful that God became sorry He had ever created man.

III God's Decision (6:6-7)

Is it not strange that man will deliberately sin against God even in the face of His warnings? People are no different today than they were in the days of Noah. Read chapters 4-8 of Genesis and see how God warned and finally dealt with mankind.

God decided that man had become so rebellious and sinful that He would just wipe them off the face of the earth. Along with them He would destroy every living creature. However, there was one man who "found grace in the eyes of God." His name was Noah.

IV God's Grace (6:8)

"Grace, grace, God's grace! Grace that will pardon and cleanse within. Grace, grace; God's grace. Grace that is greater than all our sin."

"Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord." Even though God had decided to destroy all mankind, He repented (changed His mind) and decided to spare Noah and his family. Grace is often called "unmerited favor." Grace is that God bestows upon the undeserving sinner. Salvation comes to people today "by the grace of God." (Ephesians 2:8)

V God's Promise (8:20-22)

After the flood, Noah built an altar and offered sacrifices unto God. God took notice of these offerings and was very pleased. Then He made a promise: "And the Lord said... I will not curse the ground any more for man's sake... neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done. While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease." In Genesis 9:14, God said that everytime we see the rainbow, we can know that is a sign that He keeps this promise.

CONCLUSION:—Man has rebelled against God since the beginning of time. It seems very strange that he should do so, because God can only bless obedient man. God has wonderfully planned the universe and all that is in it. As long as man stays within God's plans, all remains well. When man rebels and disobeys God's will and plans, man suffers.

God is patient and longsuffering. God's grace is matchless. How He can love an unlovely, rebellious, disobedient person is beyond human understanding. That He does, however, is proven by His greatest plan of all—the plan of salvation! "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." "If you will confess your sins (to Him), He will forgive your sins and cleanse you from all unrighteousness."

SHORT STUFF

Gen. Duke Scratched from Derby, Leaving Field of Nine for Race

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP) — Calumet Farm's Gen. Duke officially was scratched from the 83rd Kentucky Derby today, leaving a field of nine three-year-olds for America's racing classic.

Trainer Jimmy Jones took his sore-footed colt onto the track this morning for a final test of the injured foot. The colt failed to pass the test.

After a conference with his father, Ben A. Jones, and owner Mrs. Gene Markey, they decided Gen. Duke was not fit for the race. The other nine horses were in tip top shape ready to go.

The possibility that Gen. Duke would be scratched was given force Friday when Calumet listed Willie Hartack in the official program as the jockey on both Gen. Duke and his stablemate, Iron Liege, leaving Dave Erb — who rode Needles to victory in last year's Derby — without a mount.

A bright, clear but chilly afternoon was forecast for the 83rd running of the $153,000 Derby, with Wheatley Stable's Bold Ruler favored in the nine-colt field.

More than 100,000 fans will jam into Churchill Downs for the first of the Triple Crown classics while millions watch the drama unfold on television or listen on radio.

Post time was 3:30 p. m. c.s.t.

Eddie Arcaro, winner of a record five Derbies, was up on Bold Ruler in what was to have been a rubber match with Gen. Duke. The two colts had split in their four previous meetings with Bold Ruler taking the Bahamas and Flamingo Stakes, Gen. Duke winning the Everglades and Florida Derby.

Grouped in a tight knot for third choice were Ralph Lowe's Gallant Man, second by a nose to Bold Ruler in the Wood, Kerr Stable's Round Table, record-breaking winner of the Blue Grass Stakes; and Clifford Lusk's Federal Hill, the locally-owned winner of the Derby Trial and a record-breaker in winning the Louisiana Derby.

Willie Shoemaker, who got a first Kentucky Derby victory when he beat Nashua with Swaps, rides Gallant Man while Ralph Neves is up on Round Table. Whistlin' Willie Carstens has Federal Hill.

Rounding out one of the flashiest fields ever assembled for the Kentucky Derby were John L. Applebaum's Mister Jive with Hedley Woodhouse up; T. Alie Grissom's Shan Pac with J. Ralph Adams up; William S. Miller's Better Bee with Johnny Adams, Ralph's father, riding, and Ada L. Rice's Indian Creek, George Taniguchi up.

Eddie Machen Scores 21st Straight Victory

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP) — Unbeaten Eddie Machen, fresh from his 21st straight victory, was heartened today by promoter Jim Norris' assurance he would try to match San Francisco Eddie and Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson for a heavyweight challengers' battle at Madison Square Garden in July.

Machen, second — ranking contender, showed much improvement Friday night, Kentucky Derby eve, before only 3,600 fans in huge Freedom Hall as he whipped Joey Maxim much more impressively than in their first bout last January.

Again 24-year-old Machen of San Francisco won a unanimous 10-round decision over the ancient and flabby ex-light heavyweight champion; but this time in more lopsided fashion. Thirty-five-year-old Cleveland Joey, who now lives in Miami, appeared on the verge of a kayo at least three times. Machen weighed 190 3-4; Maxim, 188.

White Sox Beat Senators, Braves Win from Pirates; Dodgers Blank Cards, 6-0

By United Press

The Chicago White Sox and Milwaukee Braves are off to their best starts in history and while neither has begun printing World Series tickets yet, both appear to be settling down to a long, cozy stay in first place.

The White Sox reeled off their 11th victory in 13 games and their fifth in a row by licking Washington, 11-6 Friday. Best previous start by a White Sox club was 10 out of 13 way back in 1920.

And the Braves made it 12 victories in 14 starts with an 11-inning 8-7 decision over the Pirates Friday night. Up to now, the best season's start by any Milwaukee club was nine out of 12 last year.

Brooklyn remained two games behind the pace-setting Braves by beating St. Louis, 6-0, at Jersey City Friday night, while Cincinnati defeated the Giants, 11-10, and the Phillies handed the Cubs their eighth straight defeat, 9-6.

Yanks Beat A's

The Yankees stayed within 2 1-2 games of the first — place White Sox with an 8-5 decision over the Athletics in the American League, while Detroit blanked Boston, 6-0. Inclement weather caused postponement of the Baltimore-Cleveland game.

Outfielder Larry Doby and sinker-ball pitcher Gerry Staley were the key cogs in the White Sox triumph over the Senators. Doby drove in four runs with a double, single and infield out while Staley held Washington to two runs after coming to starter Bob Keegan's rescue in the second inning.

Bobby Thomson's single with the bases loaded in the 11th provided the Braves with their victory over the Pirates. Hank Aaron, whose three-run homer highlighted a six-run outburst in the sixth, started the Braves on the road to victory with a triple in the 11th. Red Murf was the winner although Warren Spahn was rushed in the last of the 11th.

Big Don Newcombe scattered five hits in beating the Cardinals for the ninth straight time.

Whisenant Paces Redlegs

A three-run homer by pinch-hitter Pete Whisenant in the ninth carried the Redlegs to their triumph over the Giants, who had gone ahead 10-8 on Hank Sauer's three-run homer in the sixth. Gus Bell and Red Schoendienst also hit homers.

Trailing by five runs, the Cubs rallied to tie their game with the Phils at 6-6, but relief pitchers Valentinetti and Dick Littlefield each forced in runs with bases-loaded walks in the seventh to give Philadelphia the victory. The Cubs hurt their cause with five errors, four of them by rookie second baseman Casey Wise.

The Yankees took advantage of three unearned runs in the seventh to beat the Athletics. Don Larsen racked up his second victory in relief of starter Bob Turley, who was knocked out in the sixth.

Paul Foytack tossed a four-hit shutout at the Red Sox for his first victory. Tiger teammate Frank House homered.

Fight Results

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Eddie Machen, 190 3-4, Redding, Calif., outpointed Joey Maxim, 189, Miami, Fla. (10).

HALIFAX — Arthur Persley, 135 1-2, Red Cross, La., outpointed Richard (Kid) Howard, 135 1-2, Halifax (10).
